From the Peace and Social Concerns Committee: Spring Friends will offer free snack packs to children in our community this summer. Each pack will be filled with healthy snacks like fruit, raisins, pretzels, and vegetables. The packs will also contain an invitation to a free back-to-school Ice Cream Social on August 8 at Spring Friends Meeting. We will set up a tent and table twice this summer at Sylvan Elementary School on Alamance-Burlington School System (ABSS) meal pick-up days (June 29, July 13) and at SAFE at Hwy 87 (June 30, July 14). In addition to the snack packs, we will also give out watermelon slices and lemonade.

From the Worship and Music Committee: We invite everyone to join a discussion about music and worship on July 5 after Meeting for Worship. Bring a sandwich or something to eat for yourself. A virtual option will be provided.

The Quaker Forum on July 12 will feature Sue Fry sharing about Elizabeth Gurney Fry, the (Quaker) English prison reformer.

The next meeting of the Technology and Communications Committee will take place on July 21 at 6 pm. This is an open meeting with all F(f)riends invited to join the remote discussion via the regular Sunday link.

Congratulations to our recent high school and college graduates!

Dillon Walker graduated from UNC-Asheville in December with a BS in Music Technology. He is employed with Pisgah AVL (Audio Visual Lighting) and is currently a member of three bands. He plans to stay in the Asheville area.

Emma Taylor Hobbs graduated from UNC-Chapel Hill in May. She is enjoying travel as she makes plans for her next endeavor.

Abigail (Gale) Fisher-Adams graduated from The Hawbridge School in Saxapahaw and is currently working at Doherty's in Pittsboro and the General Store in Saxapahaw. Stop by and say hello! Gale will be attending Alamance Community College (ACC) in the fall and is interested in pursuing culinary arts, possibly at Johnson & Wales, after ACC.

Celie Lowe graduated from The Hawbridge School as salutatorian in May. She'll be going to UNcW in the fall. Annika Lowe graduated summa cum laude from American University last year. She's been living with friends and teaching dance in DC for the past year, will be home for the summer, and will then be off to travel the world in September!
